

We are a free public charter school serving children living in San Francisco's highest-poverty neighborhoods. Our mission is to disrupt the cycle of poverty by preparing students to go to and graduate from college.

OnePurpose School

- Approximately 160 students in kindergarten to grade 4 this year:
 - 90% qualify for free or reduced lunch
 - 54% African-American, 40% Latino, 6% Asian/Pacific Islander or Other
 - 30% English Language Learners
- Located in the Bayview neighborhood of San Francisco
- Opened in August 2015
- Will grow one grade per year through grade 12
- Admission by random lottery

Demographics of the Bayview

- 82% of children live in poverty.
- Historically, fewer than 10% of students graduate college.

2017–2018 Results

- 60% of our students read at or above grade level based on our internal literacy assessments, above the norm for students living in poverty.
- We provided individual and small group therapy to 25% of our students, which helped increase student attentiveness and decrease behaviors that impede learning.
- Student attendance was a strong 93%.
- We did not expel or counsel out a single student for the third straight year.
- We invested more than $7,500 in private philanthropy per student.

Our Pioneering Model

- We offer a progressive college preparatory program with high behavioral and academic expectations, delivered with love.
- The pillars of our model include addressing trauma head-on, a deep focus on literacy and higher order thinking skills, project-based learning and strong parent involvement.

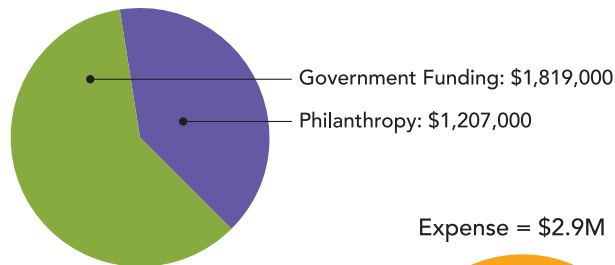

Additional Information

- 9:1 student to faculty ratio
- 58% faculty of color
- Two full-time on-site therapists
- Partnerships:
 - Seneca Family of Agencies provides literacy and socio-emotional support services.
 - The Boys & Girls Club of San Francisco provides our free before and after school program.
 - Five Keys provides parenting and ESL classes to our parents.
 - The YMCA provides our summer program.
